

The Kate Crash Experience lives here.

I want to crawl naked into her piano Feel

her keys vibrate my better nature, my worst nature sing into my skin
all my lovers lost thoughts and hands swallow me as I vaporize and steam through the strings into her ivory down down and down

and up through her palms into her throat and let each wailed note of her [despairedn']desperate beauty rattle every inch of being into life, into light, into life make me feel

make me feel
make me feel
holy
make me feel
wanted

make me
just make me

leave the vapor kiss snaked wished into the dice of my good time eyes sink your hunger and ravenous lullabies in and out in and out in and out
'cause your crazy
'cause I don't know you
'cause your taboo
oh let me
let me
let me
make me
make me
make me

feel.

.....
REAL living in her throat
She lives inside me
She lives inside me
Live inside me
Come inside me
Live inside me
Come inside me
