

No Deal.No Fans. No Monday Night.

Written by Dave Howard

am kind of ashamed of myself.

I am Pro-Union.

I supported the WGA strike.

I was shocked at the Union Busting in Wisconsin.

I was on Team Coco.

I don't read HuffPo anymore because they are the prime example of why we need unions. One person makes 100s of millions by exploiting her "employees"

Yet, I haven't gotten behind the refs.I am now.

No Deal.No Fans. No Monday Night.

Look I know we are human and can't shut down the whole game. But we can, not watch Monday Night Football.

I'm gonna take my wife dinner.

So until the fat cats give the lowest paid members of the NFL their pensions back. I'm out on Monday Night. Come join me.
